PLEA OF INSANITY
MAY SAVE DAWSON

His Mind Said to Be Blank Since Murderous Assault on Wife.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Winchester, Va., February 5.—Unless it can be proven that James Dawson, the Mount Jackson lumberman, was insane at the time he murdered his wife, Mrs. Cecil Dawson, last week, it is likely he will be given a long term in the penitentiary. The Dawsons had not lived happily as man and wife, and only recently he got out of jail at Woodstock on bail to appear at the next term of the Circuit Court on the charge of abusing his wife. It is said that while under the influence of liquor he went home and attacked her, cutting her throat with a butcher knife and leaving her for-dead. When she finally revived, he killed her by a second blow to the head of a neighbor in a dazed condition. Dawson returned home and died the officers for several days before he surrendered. Then it was found that his mind was a blank. He is now in the Shenandoah county jail at Woodstock, and physicians are watching him.

A marriage license was issued at the office of the clerk of Frederick county yesterday to Roy A. Miller, formerly of Shenandoah county, but now engaged in the railroad business at Washington, D. C., and Miss Carrie Sale, daughter of Captain Sidney B.
Sale, of Shenandoah county. They were left for Washington to get the ceremony performed.

Jerome Jewell, a Frederick county farmer, went to Hagerstown yesterday on a hunt for his wife and young daughter, Bertie Jewell, who had left that she was gone for good. To the old farm life, farewell, for I am tired of it, the note concluded. It is said that Jewell, who is 32 years old, and is awaiting an opportunity to get to him if she did not see more of life she would go mad.

George W. Crist, aged twenty-two years, son of Albert Crist, was taken to the county jail yesterday on the charge of perjury in a hearing before Judge B. B. Bingham, whom he sought to marry, was twenty years old. The girl with whom he was married, was twelve years old last March.
She is rather well developed for one of her age, and is a very attractive girl. She had her hair done up with puffs to make her look older. When she told her story at police headquarters, she was so nervous that she could not marry Stella because he loved her.
It is stated that the county authorities may bring criminal proceedings of a more serious character against the perjurer charges have been disposed of.

The funeral of Miss Cora Turner, daughter of William Turner, who was killed by a shotgun several days ago by her jealous lover, Fitzhugh Comer, will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of her mother, Mrs.
Stella M. Bingham, whom he
old. The girl with whom he was mar-

old. The girl with whom he was married, was twelve years old last March.
she told her story at police headquar-
not marry Stella because he loved her.
more serious character against the
posed of.

The funeral of Miss Cora Turner,
killed by a shotgun several days ago
by her jealous lover, Fitzhugh Comer,
at the residence of her mother, Mrs.
